

I completely support the Telephone consumer protection act. I would not like to be disturbed at all by any telemarketers at any time which is my own personal time. If I need to buy or get something, I can get it on my own. I don't want to be disturbed by anyone and I believe nobody else also would like to be disturbed the same way. I support "Do Not Call" completely.